

Special Event Liability Program Event Types

Tenant/User Event

An event that is held or sponsored by companies, organizations, or individuals that have been permitted to use the city, county or public school property. (Ex: Weddings, auto shows, concerts, charity benefits).

Complete pages 1 and 2 of the Tenant/User and Instructor application.

Quoting
Total Event Attendance	Premium Range
1-100	$83.84-$195.63
101-500	$116.87-$344.25
501-1500	$175.60-$454.77
1501-3000	$227.38-$715.19
3001-5000	$344.25-$877.79

Instructor Event

An event that is instructional to its participants. (Ex: Sports classes, club meetings, dog obedience, yoga.) Instructors are not employees of the public entity, but provide instructional services for a fee. Premium is rated per total class attendance regardless of how many days/weeks of instruction. (Note: Participant coverage requires signed waivers.)

Complete pages 1-3 of the Tenant/User and Instructor application.

Quoting
	1-125 Attendance	126+ Attendance
Hazard I - Non Sport Instruction	$50.00 flat rate	tbd
Hazard II - Sport Instruction Only	$100.00 flat rate	tbd
attendance over 126 requires company approval &amp; an additional charge.

Nominee Event

An event held or sponsored by the public entity on the city, county or public school property. (Ex: Helena High School obtains coverage for a dance.) Coverage can be expanded to cover co-sponsors if desired. This is not a self-rated program, and must be approved and rated by the insurance company, Alliant Insurance Services, Inc.

Complete the Nominee Event Application.